How did you become aware of Trinity's Transition into Ministry Program?

What appeals to you about our TiM Program?

Positions Available - please check the positions you are most interested in (could be more than one)

At Trinity Lutheran Church there are three, two-year term calls (8/1/12 – 7/31/14). All three Trinity pastors would have teaching, preaching, and pastoral care responsibilities with a particular emphasis.

1. Assistant Pastor working with Evangelism and Global Missions
This pastor would plan community outreach events, encourage invitation among congregants and guide the new member process. This pastor would also work with the Global Mission team to inspire Trinity's participation in the life of our global church.
2. Assistant Pastor working with Small Groups and Health and Caring Ministry
This pastor would vision and guide our well-established and thriving small group ministry program. This pastor would also shepherd our health and caring ministries including parish nursing, grief support, and friendly visitors.
3. Assistant Pastor working with Social Concerns and Children's Ministry
This pastor would engage in our social concerns efforts: working with justice and charity issues and events, both within the congregation and throughout the community. This pastor would also support our vibrant Children's Ministry for families with kids 3 years old to 6th grade.
